

*Top 10 Things to Prepare Before Applying for the Global Talent Visa

Grace Olayinka

Whether you're just getting started or thinking about applying later, here are the 10 essential things you should have ready before submitting your application for endorsement.

Grace Olayinka

Know Your Core Area of Expertise.

Identify the specific field you'll be applying under — e.g. product management, software engineering, data science, design, AI, marketing, etc.

Avoid being too general.
Focus on where you've made the most impact.

Decide: Exceptional Talent or Promise?

Exceptional Talent = mid-to-senior level with a proven track record(Up to 5 years+)

Exceptional Promise = early-career professionals showing high potential (3-5 years).

Tip

Choose the right path based on experience and achievements.

Secure 3 Strong Recommendation Letters

These should come from senior professionals or industry leaders who can speak to your impact and leadership.

Letters must be specific, recent, and tailored to the visa.

Gather 10 Pieces of Supporting Evidence

These can include:

- Awards or recognitions
- Conference talks or public speaking
- Open-source contributions
- Product launches
- Articles, features, or press

Quality > Quantity. Every piece should prove your excellence or potential.

Organize Your Evidence Clearly

Make sure each document:

- Has a clear title
- Explains context and your role
- Shows measurable impact

Assessors don't guess. You must tell the story clearly.

Avoid “Recent-Only” Activities

Don’t submit achievements done within 6 months of applying — they may be seen as done just for the application.

Focus on long-term,
consistent achievements

Create a Personal Statement

This is your chance to:

- Share your journey
- Talk about your impact
- Explain your future plans in the UK

Be authentic, specific, and future-focused.

Get a Professional Tech CV Ready

Your CV should reflect:

- Roles and responsibilities
- Key achievements
- Timeline of growth and leadership

Keep it 3 pages max, and tailored to the visa.

Get Feedback Before Submitting

Having a second eye can make all the difference.

Tip

Book a review, ask a mentor,
or use my document
guides/templates.

Remember:

This visa is not about being perfect — it's about presenting your impact and potential with clarity and confidence.
